Insurance

We strongly recommend you purchase short-term travellers insurance which covers accidents, sickness, and emergency evacuation including all flight related risks. We recommend baggage insurance for lost or stolen belongings, trip curtailment and cancellation insurance, which reimburses you for non-refundable air and land costs in case of cancellation due to personal or family illness or death.

Weather

As a paraglider pilot you understand that we can not guarantee perfect weather and flyable conditions. We will do our best to reschedule the tour and offer you other options. Reasonable changes in the itinerary may be made where it deemed advisable for the comfort and well-being of participants. We reserve the right to change accommodation provisions and the tour schedule based on weather conditions.

Accommodation

Accommodation is usually based on double occupancy. Single arrangements are usually available at a supplemental cost; please let us know by checking the appropriate box in the registration. If you are travelling alone, you can usually be paired with another tour member of the same sex. In some cases this may not be possible and a single supplement fee may be charged.

The overnight accommodation on our trip range from camping to a combination of camping and hotels. Hotels are usually local-style and range from first-class to tourist class. Rooms have private facilities (bath, shower, toilet, etc.) when available, and are clean and comfortable.

Visas and permits

In order to travel internationally, you need a passport that is valid for at least six months from the date of your departure. Many countries require a visa for entry. Visas are not included in any of our trips. Obtaining the necessary visas is your responsibility.

It is your obligation to ensure that your pilot license is recognized in each country where we will be flying.

CUMULUS PARAGLIDING

Limitation of liability and risk notice

We are happy to answer questions and offer advice. However this should not and does not replace your own judgement.

As a licensed pilot it is your decision whether and when to launch. We can under no circumstances be held responsible for any damages or injuries incurred on our tours.

We assume no responsibility for any injury, loss or damage to person(s) or property in connection with any service resulting directly from detention, annoyance, delays, expenses arising from quarantine, strikes, thefts, force majeure, failure of any means of conveyance to arrive or depart as scheduled, civil disturbances, terrorism, government restrictions or regulations and discrepancies or changes in transit or hotel services and other circumstances over which we have no control.

All participants of the tour must be aware that, due to the nature of the outdoor programme you are participating in, you are exposed to certain risks and dangers, including, but not limited to, the hazards of travelling in rugged mountainous or wilderness terrain, accident, illness, acute mountain sickness, subject to the forces of nature and travel by air, car, boat or other vehicles. Our trips can take place in almost isolated wilderness often far away from medical facilities.

Customer agreement

On payment the customer agrees to be bound by these terms and conditions.
